Reconstruction—The President Defended.

WASHINGTON, August 19, 1865.

Major General [illegible] was serenaded to-night and acknowledged the honor in a patriotic speech. The serenading party then proceeded to the residence of Secretary Harlan, and after the band had played several airs, the Secretary was called out by the crowd and spoke as follows:

"I have no doubt that nothing but a feeling of friendship for me can account for the presence of the great number of you here to-night. If any are prompted by any other motive, I do not doubt that it is on account of your respect for our Government, which now dominates over our entire and common country, and for the Administration that is now enforcing the laws of the republic from Maine to [illegible], and from Minnesota to Texas. And possibly I may be indebted for this compliment to a belief of my connection with this Administration. You must not expect me to-night to develop what will be in the future policy of the individual elected to the highest position in the gift of the American people. No one is authorized to speak for him but himself, and I don't [illegible] whether he now knows what will be the policy which he will be compelled by circumstances to follow in the future. We may, however, judge of the future from his official acts in the past. I know a large portion of the American people feel a deep solicitude on the subject of the probable success of his Administration; and there are those who are the enemies of this Administration, as they were of that of his predecessor, who are anxious to array against him those by whose votes he was elevated to his present position. Many, I doubt not, have much solicitude on this subject. Some may fear that, now that he has been elevated to place and power, he may turn against those who elected him. Those who fear know but little of the man they have thus honored by their votes. (Cheers.) I would ask those who had fears upon this subject, was he not nominated by the same Convention that renominated the lamented Lincoln? Did he not accept the nomination and place himself voluntarily upon the same platform? Was he not elected to the second place by the same electors who chose the lamented Abraham Lincoln to the first? And, after succeeding to the chair made vacant by the foul act of the assassin, was not his first act a notice to the Cabinet officers of his predecessor that he desired a continuance of their services? And have they not continued, each with his accustomed portfolio, with a solitary exception? and that change was made in pursuance of an arrangement made by his predecessor. Did he not, when the time came, reiterate the proclamation of emancipation which had been issued by his predecessor, and distinctly inform the leaders of the rebellion that they must accept as one result of the terrible struggle through which we had passed, that slavery cannot hereafter exist in the United States? [Applause.] Has he ever faltered in the declaration of the sentiment that the rebellion is a great crime, and that those who perpetrated it must suffer the penalty of the law unless they apply to the Executive for clemency? [Cries of No! and Good!] What act of President Johnson differs from those of his predecessor in any material point of view? Does any one suggest the policy for the restoration of the Southern States? When he came into office seven States previously in rebellion, had been entirely or partially reorganized by his predecessor—Missouri, Arkansas, West Virginia, Virginia, Tennessee, Louisiana and Texas. I am reminded that I may include the State of Maryland also. I believe, however, the latter State was not, per forma, out of the Union. In short, may I ask: Does the plan President Johnson now proposes for the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi differ from that of the other States I have mentioned by President Lincoln? Can any one name any important difference between the two cases? I apprehend not. Nor can any one suggest that the question of suffrage was settled differently in the States first named from the latter. Now may I enquire of the friends of the late President, those who thought his policy good enough for the American people, what cause have they to complain of the policy of President Johnson? Does any one believe that if President Lincoln occupied the Presidential chair, his own policy would be changed by himself without a material change of circumstances? If not, who has a right to complain of his successor? We may have an individual opinion on the collateral questions which have arisen, and which may arise; but we had these differences of opinion while President Lincoln occupied the Presidential chair. If they were not then a sufficient cause for sundering the Union party, and as a result suffering the country to be destroyed, are they now a sufficient cause to permit this great party to go to pieces and the country to ruin as a consequence? The party, which, through military power, suppressed a rebellion which has had no parallel in history, has now the great responsibility imposed upon it to keep its columns intact and its men massed until the disorganized States are reorganized, and a feeling of friendship and unity is restored throughout our whole country. If, then, we as Union men have no cause to complain of the President for anything which we could not allege with equal force against his predecessor, let us see that we give him no cause to break with us. Allow me, in retiring, to thank you for the honor of this call."

Secretary Harlan then retired amid cheers and music by the band.

LETTER FROM A FREEDMAN TO HIS OLD MASTER.—The following is a genuine document. It was dictated by the old servant, and contains his ideas and forms of expression:

DAYTON, (Ohio,) Aug 7, 1865.

To my old Master, Colonel P. H. Anderson, Big Spring, Tennessee—Sir: I got your letter and was glad to find that you had not forgotten Jourdon, and that you wanted me to come back and live with you again, promising to do better for me than anybody else can. I have often felt uneasy about you. I thought the Yankees would have hung you long before this, for harboring the rebs they found at your house. I suppose they never heard about your going to Colonel Martin's to kill the Union soldier that was left by his company in their stable. Although you shot at me twice before I left you, I did not wish to hear of your being hurt, and am glad you are still living. It would do me good to go back to the dear old home again and see Miss Mary and Miss Martha, and Allen, Esther, Green and Lee. Give my love to them all, and tell them I hope we will meet in the better world, if not in this. I would have gone back to see you all when I was working in the Nashville hospital, but one of the neighbors told me Henry intended to shoot me if he ever got a chance.

I want to know particularly what the good chance is you propose to give me. I am doing tolerably well here, I get $25 a month, with victuals and clothing; have a comfortable home for Mandy (the folks here call her Mrs. Anderson) and the children Milly Jane and Grundy go to school and are learning well; the teacher says Grundy has a head for a preacher. They go to Sunday school, and Mandy and me attend church regularly. We are kindly treated. Sometimes we overhear others saying, "Them colored people were slaves" down in Tennessee. The children feel hurt when they hear such remarks, but I tell them it was no disgrace in Tennessee to belong to Colonel Anderson. Many darkeys would have been proud, as I used to was, to call you master. Now, if you will write and say what wages you will give me, I will be better able to decide whether it would be to my advantage to move back again.

As to my freedom, which you say I can have, there is nothing to be gained on that score, as I got my free papers in 1864 from the Provost Marshal General of the Department at Nashville. Mandy says she would be afraid to go back without some proof that you were sincerely disposed to treat us justly and kindly; and we have concluded to test your sincerity by asking you to send us our wages for the time we served you. This will make us forget and forgive old scores, and rely on your justice and friendship in the future. I served you faithfully for thirty-two years, and Mandy twenty years. At $25 a month for me, and $2 a week for Mandy, our earnings would amount to $11,680. Add to this the interest for the time our wages has been kept back and deduct what you paid for our clothing and three doctor's visits to me, and pulling a tooth for Mandy, and the balance will show what we are in justice entitled to. Please send the money by Adams' Express, in care of V. Winters, Esq., Dayton, Ohio. If you fail to pay us for faithful labors in the past we can have little faith in your promises in the future. We trust the good Maker has opened your eyes to the wrongs which you and your fathers have done to me and my fathers, in making us toil for you for generations without recompense. Here I draw my wages every Saturday night; but in Tennessee there never was any pay day for the negroes any more than for the horses and cows. Surely there will be a day of reckoning for those who defraud the laborer of his hire.

In answering this letter please state if there would be any safety for my Milly and Jane, who are now grown up and both good looking girls. You know how it was with poor Matilda and Catherine. I would rather stay here and starve and die if it come to that than have my girls brought to shame by the violence and wickedness of their young masters. You will also please state if there has been any schools opened for the colored children in your neighborhood; the great desire of my life now is to give my children an education, and have them form virtuous habits.

From your old servant,
JOURDON ANDERSON.

P. S.—Say howdy to George Carter, and thank him for taking the pistol from you when you were shooting at me.

HORRIBLE CRIME.—Darytown, a small village nine miles from Hamilton, Butler county, was the scene of a terrible affray on Friday last, in which a young man named Sylvester Irwin killed his father, John Irwin, and his step mother, Jane Irwin. A statement of the affair is as follows:

At dinner-time, the father, mother and son were seated at the table, discussing at length family affairs, when the conversation became fearfully exciting, and harsh and violent language was indulged in. Finally the mother, Mrs. Irwin, rose from her seat, and with the carving-knife in her right hand rushed at her son, who, rising from his chair, fell back from the table, and drawing a revolver warned her not to make another step toward him, else he would shoot her. At this juncture the father, enraged and excited, rose and took the part of his wife, and seizing a hatchet, rushed toward the young man, who immediately fired at his father, and then turning toward the mother also shot her, both parents falling lifeless at his feet. The young man, Irwin, who is unmarried and aged about 30 years, then informed the neighbors what he had done, and hunting up the constable of Darytown gave himself up for trial, declaring that he committed the deed in self-defence. The prisoner was then brought to Hamilton and lodged in the county jail. The occurrence has caused considerable excitement in Darytown.—Cincinnati Commercial, Aug. 6th.

CONVERSATIONS WITH PRESIDENT JOHNSON.—A Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says:

A committee of freedmen said to the President—"Mr. President, we are discouraged. Richmond is as much in the hands of secessionists as it was before Lee surrendered. Nominally free, we are yet the worst of slaves, and we see no hope of redress unless you aid us."

"Gentlemen," answered Johnson, "you are free, and the vainest Virginian shall not only acknowledge your freedom, but your equality if you are true to yourselves."

"But the local and State laws of Virginia, Mr. President"—

"What of the local and State laws of Virginia? Until these F. F. V.'s come to their senses, I rather think United States bayonets will be about the only laws they shall have. Go back to your homes—work hard, do your duty, and I will see that the lowest among you is secured in his rights and title to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

As the President uttered his last remark his face glowed with a high resolve and I never saw manhood more sterling and erect than his every lineament betokened.

A NEW OLD DEMOCRAT.—The Cincinnati Herald says that Harrison H. Dodd, the Indianapolis conspirator, who terminated his prison life by sliding down a rope instead of dangling from the end of it, is in Canada, in good physical condition, but rather seedy. He repents his folly and curses his old associates with fervor.

"I publish the banns between this switch and your back," said a schoolmaster to a delinquent pupil. "I forbid them." "On what grounds?" "The parties are not agreed." "Bring them together and see," said the pedagogue laying it on.

[illegible] THE STATE

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 2, 186[illegible]

Treatment of Negroes at the South

[illegible] that [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] that [illegible] a large part of the Southern population [illegible] wholly exterminate the [illegible] It is asserted that the aggregate of brutal murders of blacks throughout the South amount to several hundred per day. The Southern newspapers are filled with these accounts and it is supposed that only a small part of the murders are ever publicly noticed or made known. Now that the blacks are made free it seems to gratify the [illegible] instincts of that class who have ever been most hostile to the Government to be enabled to wreak their vengeance, though totally without cause, upon the unoffending and defenceless people whose enslavement was the source of our late great National trouble. The secret disloyal organizations of the country which have been known and watched for several years past are thought to be now engaged in this bloody work. The editor of the [illegible] a reformed rebel and [illegible] an ex member of the Golden Circle, in a recent issue of his paper says:

This alarming increase of death amongst the blacks is, we fear, but the developing of the extensive conspiracy alluded to by us in our last, which has for its object the enslavement of the negroes or their entire extermination (more likely the latter), which was not expected would be apparent to the public until after the withdrawal of the National troops, and our re admission to the Union had been secured. Good behavior and discretion having accomplished this, then they, the Knights of the Golden Circle, count on the protection and assistance of the State and local authorities, even if the Southern States are obliged to ratify the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery, which is claimed will be a dead letter in any event. The armies disbanded, all fears of renewed hostilities removed, and the ascension of the Democratic party to power is, according to their figuring, also to be realized as a matter of course. Those whom the gods seek to destroy they first make mad. Therefore we again say that unless this barbarous work ceases, we fear that General Butler will succeed in his project of organizing a black battalion in every county in the South, to be maintained by the proceeds realized from the confiscated lands of the disloyal, which he claims is the remedy, together with negro suffrage, which will secure tranquility to the Government, protection to the colored people and justice to all concerned. All this will be realized, unless the Southern people withhold their sympathy and encouragement from those malcontents. In thus exposing their fiendish designs we hope to destroy their evil influence and secure our prompt return to the Union, which will not be accomplished for years to come, if these confirmed and irreconcilable Secessionists are left to prosecute their suicidal work.

If even a small part of the above be true it becomes a question what shall be done. From the first we have found that President Johnson was too swift to pardon the malignant rebels who, before their final subjugation, had committed every atrocity in the fiend's calendar. Such an example of leniency, magnanimity and considerate treatment as has been shown by the Government authorities in the case of vicious and death deserving traitors in our country, has never before been witnessed. Not a person has yet received extraordinary punishment for his share in the late rebellion. Some dozen or so of the leaders are yet retained in custody, but no one can guess what will be done with them—whether they will be dismissed or not. The people of the South, with scarcely an exception, are restored to all the rights and privileges which they had willfully and wickedly forfeited. But still they are not cured of that rabies which secession generates. What ought the Government to do? Obviously it is its duty to protect the helpless colored people against whom the whites of the South seem to be conspired and arrayed. The rebels South have not been dealt with severely enough. They have suffered no punishment commensurate with their crimes, and are placed under no disabilities to regulate their future conduct. It may be that the Government will yet have to deal with them in a different manner. If nothing but severity will bring them to their senses, then let the treatment they receive be rigorous enough to teach them this needed lesson well.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

New York, Aug 31, 1865

The new and splendid steamship New York sails to-morrow for Aspinwall with the Pacific mails and passengers. She is by all odds the finest steamship ever put into the line on this side of the Isthmus. Her cabin, second cabin and even steerage accommodations are really luxurious, and passengers will never regret that they went out in her. The New York presents such a contrast to the steamers which have hitherto run between this port and Aspinwall, and is withal so magnificently fitted up that she is worthy of all the praise which can be given to Mr Allen, President of the Atlantic Company, and to Commodore Garrison, who has had much to do with her construction. The Pacific Mail Company have, we learn, abandoned the idea of running a line on the Atlantic, conceding that the New York is all that could be desired by their patrons and under the condition that the other ships to compose the line to Aspinwall shall be made equal to her in accommodations. The Costa Rica has been hauled off to undergo a process of transmogrification which will make her the twin ship of the New York as regards interior fittings, and the Ocean Queen will soon be similarly altered. The company have in contemplation also the building of another new steamer the counterpart in all respects to the New York. Your readers who may visit the East will hereafter do so without suffering the thousand and one annoyances which have hitherto been the bane of travelers between Aspinwall and New York.

The overland telegraph, after being silent for a long time, or nearly so, was once more in working order this week and brought us dates from San Francisco to August 28th. It is to be hoped the continuity will hereafter be maintained, but I suppose a little time will have to elapse ere regular daily communication is restored. The Indians will first have to be quieted or removed from the route, which consummation, devoutly to be wished, seems on the eve of attainment.

THE CHINA MAILS.

The Postmaster General has accepted the tender made by the Pacific Mail Company for the mail steamship service between San Francisco and Hong Kong, touching at Honolulu and Kanagawa. The compensation for twelve round trips annually is $500,000, for ten years from the 1st of January, 1867. The average rate of the steamers is not to be less than 200 nautical miles per day. [illegible] the company have already contracts and in process of construction vessels enough for the service, for in addition to the splendid steamers already in the Pacific there are the Atlantic [illegible] and Henry Chauncey all nearly ready for service and the [illegible] and El Dorado in process of building. All of them are large enough and have power sufficient for the proposed service. The new ships will of course be of the right stamp, and the Atlantic is now being refitted for the new business she is to be put to, while the Baltic will soon follow suit. These relics of the old Collins line are still some of the finest steamers afloat and will give a good account of themselves on the Pacific. The company has in consequence of the promises of the Atlantic Company to provide accommodations equal to those of the New York in all of their ships relinquished the intention of running a line between New York and Aspinwall.

THE ARMY.

It is said the order of the War Department for the discharge of certain troops in Texas will not materially diminish our force there. Indeed it is not generally believed that the Government has any intention of withdrawing the army of observation which, so to speak, lines the Mexican frontier. The statement said to have been made by Secretary Seward in reply to an autograph letter which bearing [illegible] Maximilian desired the other day to present to the Washington authorities that the United States never could know any Empire of Mexico is regarded as settling the question that our troops will remain on the Rio Grande [illegible]

The following is a summary of the news by the steamers [illegible] which sailed from Liverpool for New York [illegible]

The London [illegible] has an editorial strongly denouncing the continental depredations of the Shenandoah, sharing in the indignation of America against her. It says Capt. Waddell is acting on his own responsibility and unless he can clearly show he had no knowledge of what was known to everybody else in the civilized world, he has no claim to mercy. It adds that the English Government has done all that international law requires in the matter and suggests that she might under the circumstances do more, and that the ships of war should be instructed to treat the Shenandoah as any other pirate, and assist the United States in stopping her outrages. It trusts that instructions to this effect will also be given to the British commanders in the Pacific.

MEDICAL NOTICE.

DR. N. DAVIDSOHN,

RESPECTFULLY INFORMS THE PUBLIC OF Portland and vicinity of his recent arrival in the city, with the intention of taking up a permanent residence at this progressive place. Dr. D., late Physician and Surgeon in the United States army, is an honorary graduate, a practical and experienced Physician Surgeon and Accoucheur, and in virtue of his theoretical and practical knowledge, claims public trust and confidence. He requests suffering humanity afflicted with chronic or acute disorders, to apply to him immediately, that the medical skill he professes to possess may be made apparent and beneficial to the public.

The Doctor will confidentially receive and respond to any application forwarded in writing.

His fees are usually moderate and will be reduced to individual circumstances.

Dr. D. also respectfully informs the poorer class of his community that his office will be open for the reception of poor sufferers only every Monday and Thursday between the hours of 9 and 11½ A. M. Sincere medical advice will be granted to them gratis, and faithful attendance to obstetrical cases whenever required, Free of all Charges.

He speaks the English, French and German languages fluently.

Particular attention paid to FEMALE DISORDERS.

His Office is at the Burns and [illegible] their soundings, and Mr. Perkins states that [illegible] the time they sounded was the lowest they have [illegible] since they have been at work at the [illegible] and that at three o'clock P. M. [illegible] drawing fourteen feet and a half [illegible] that she was actually drawing [illegible] not the slightest [illegible] no excuse for the [illegible] at this time. About the [illegible] attention being paid [illegible] Mr. Moulton was paid [illegible] Portland and making a chart of the river [illegible] to be dredged. His chart was [illegible] Council, placed on file, [illegible] and the persons at work [illegible] is bled again. They are working [illegible] instructions. Another [illegible] dredging [illegible] recommended [illegible] channel, next season [illegible] the dredgers are now pulling [illegible] very channel, and filling it up. [illegible] better management must [illegible] and, those better posted will do well [illegible] public know the true state of the case. Something [illegible] more than an explanation is due [illegible] the tax payers who have these bills to foot.

WHEAT IN GRANDE RONDE VALLEY.—Messrs. [illegible] have a new flouring mill at [illegible] Grande Ronde valley, commenced running last week [illegible] bringing in wheat very freely [illegible] is now in this city, left the place [illegible] during the present season [illegible] Grande Ronde valley, and [illegible] by Messrs. [illegible] Reynolds of Union. There will be 50,000 [illegible] wheat milled by the three establishments this season [illegible] estimates furnished—and it has been [illegible] that 120,000 bushels of wheat was raised, the farmers [illegible] the balance for seed. This appears to be a big [illegible]

POLICE COURT.—On Saturday last John McKinney, for taking up a watch at a saloon on First street, [illegible] Judge Hoffman of $5.00 and costs. Wm. R. Hill [illegible] Bill, for indulging in pugilism [illegible] on the person of the said John after the [illegible] paid a fine of $20 and costs—the evidence in the case showing a wilful and aggravated [illegible] was also arraigned on a charge of fighting [illegible] but was discharged, upon payment of costs [illegible] giving the required statement that he had received "satisfaction."

GONE EAST.—Mr. S. B. Parrish, his brother Charles and mother, take their departure by the steamship this afternoon for the east. Mr. S. B. and Mrs. P. will return in the spring of 1866—Charles will enter College. Mr. Wm. [illegible] goes east by the Orizaba intending to enter the Bellevue Institute of New York, as a medical student. Mr. J. [illegible], inventor of the chain ferry boat, also goes for the purpose of perfecting a patent to his invention.

THE [illegible].—Messrs. C. M. and T. J. Carter presented for consideration by the Council on Friday evening last, a proposition to put down the "real genuine Ni[illegible]" [illegible] "in the mode and manner it is generally laid in the city of Chicago." They asked time [illegible] by steam, and to obtain the necessary asphal[illegible] The matter was not acted upon in consequence of a press of other business before the Board [illegible] were acting solely in behalf of their own interest, and did not propose to put the pave in front of [illegible] their own property.

[illegible]—During last week eighty-two wagons of [illegible] reached this city by the steamer Cascade [illegible] were encamped yesterday in nearly every portion of the suburbs. Very many of them have selected places [illegible] Others do not appear to know where to turn [illegible] and Lane counties will receive considerable of an [illegible] from those now bivouacking hereabouts.

[illegible]—Mr. J. R. Wilkinson, of La Grande, brought to the Insane Asylum on Friday last a man by the name of [illegible] Biddleman, formerly of Powder river, who [illegible] crazy. During Biddleman's residence at [illegible] he became dangerous and it was necessary to [illegible] The cause of his insanity is attributed [illegible] difficulties arising from the national troubles [illegible] wife and three children.

[illegible] —After an absence of a week the [illegible] reached her dock in this city on Saturday [illegible] She has been engaged in towing [illegible] on the lower Columbia, making her regular [illegible] with the Cowlitz river packet.

[illegible]—The propeller Web Foot, Capt. Fisher, on last Friday, brought to this city for the boat building yard of Mr. Bruce, 10,000 feet of Oak in logs and [illegible] knee timber. The logs were placed [illegible] dock at Messrs. Harbaugh & Stitzel's mill [illegible] shape for use.

[illegible].—The Portland Academy and Female [illegible] is filling up quite encouragingly with students [illegible] week we are informed several new pupils [illegible] including one young gentleman, Mr. De[illegible] from the southern portion of the State [illegible] years. We are pleased to record such evi[illegible] of a valuable school.

[illegible] STEAMBOATS.—Six steamboats were burned [illegible] one day last week. They were the property [illegible] Company—the Express, Mountain Buck [illegible] and two then superannuated [illegible] They were burned for their iron.

WISTAR'S BALSAM

—OF—

HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY

HALF A CENTURY,

WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the

THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST

INCLUDING EVEN

CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:—

S. B. Finley, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.
E. Boyden, M. D., Exeter, Me.
Alexander Hatch, M. D., China, Me.
R. Fellows, M. D., Hill, N. H.
W. H. Webb, M. D., Cape Vincent, N. Y.
W. B. Lynch, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.
Abraham Skillman, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.
H. D. Martin, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas; for the fame and virtue of Wistar's Balsam have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

After October 1, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will bear the printed names of both Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston, Mass., and John D. Park, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as fac simile of the signatures of "I. Butts," "Sanford & Park," and "H. Wistar, M. D."

LETTER FROM JUDGE LOCHRANE OF GEORGIA.—When in Atlanta Judge Lochrane was invited to address the citizens. In a letter declining the honor he said:

Some few weeks ago I went through Atlanta, and I met only ruins; the dead seemed to inhabit it as with ghosts the streets; the council of the living was like the [illegible] brick were tumbled together in the highway, and [illegible] a hope seemed [illegible] fares. This day I [illegible] ing into action. [illegible] ring of the hammer [illegible] with smiling faces [illegible] Hope and Enterprise where ruins blacken [illegible]. I saw stores and mansions lifting their heads to the sunshine and felt your [illegible] put off the garments of mourning [illegible] like a bride [illegible] embrace of prosperity. What Atlanta is doing [illegible] by the whole State, and Georgia must rise from failure and disaster to life and industry. The abolition of slavery is no cause for despondency, for all the prophesies that this disaster would prostrate the interests of the people, that your streets would grow up with grass, your houses become tenantless, your homes desolate and the land covered with rags and poverty have flitted away with the [illegible] of the present. Slavery is abolished and not a single house can be obtained for rent, property has in many places been enhanced in value and the flow of capital already started will rush on [illegible] ment to an extent that will raise the brightest hopes of the future. The decree of Providence exhibits [illegible] will [illegible] bring [illegible] light bright dreams of glory. The great question of statesmanship is the solution of the free labor system. We must grasp the full import of duty imposed upon us by the crisis. The idea that the coming Convention may adjourn after recognizing [illegible] and the State go into the Union on the presentation of such Constitution, is a fallacy. We must go further and give the guarantee of constitutional protection to the rights which freedmen have acquired by the results of war. The dominant party which has fought for years, in the press, the forum and the field to abolish slavery after four years war costing millions to the country and the sacrifice of lives, now that victory is upon their banners and a majority in Congress of largely over one hundred votes are not going to allow the admission of Southern delegates until the full results of the struggle are acknowledged and asserted beyond the caprice of men or votes of Legislatures. It will be imbecility to expect Georgia to assume her position by the votes of men who have fought this question without we discharge duties imposed by the crisis. We must not only acknowledge the freedom of the slave, but we must go further; we must recognize his right to acquire property, the right to testify in courts for his protection and his own, and place crime and police regulations upon a common principle of legislation. We cannot have distinctions of class in crimes—all violators of law must stand equal before the law, and our Legislature control the policy of interest by general laws adopted to preserve the peace and order of society against all rogues and vagabonds of every class and color. This principle of public policy will save us from negro suffrage, and this last dogma we must resist, for the negro, though free, must be an inferior in the privileges of citizenship. The Government of the United States is a white man's Government, and while under the benignity of its laws, industry and persons and property will be protected, we cannot consent to lower the standard of our civilization; we must teach the freedman his duty, as well as proclaim his rights; his responsibilities must be made known to him, and the follies which have entered his brain with his new-born freedom must be driven out. We must be just to the whites as well as the blacks, and fanaticism on this subject will only lead to trouble, flattering the negro into a position of folly that will impede the progress and industry of the country. On this subject I am proud our people are unanimous, accepting the full length and breadth of the failure and legal and proper results. We have a spirit of pride still left that leads us to the support of President Johnson and the great Union party of the North and West, which so fully maintains the equalities of the States and citizens, and granting protection to the freedmen, is still just and statesmanlike to the true interests of the country.

Hoping the country will rally to the principles of public policy laid down, I am very respectfully,

O. A. LOCHRANE

FIGHT BETWEEN TWO IRISH WOMEN FOR A NEGRO HUSBAND.—There are many streets in the Fifth and Eighth Wards of this city which have long been famous for their miscegens, but the latter can now claim the pre-eminence in this physiological distinction. The Radical advocates of an amalgamation of the races, however, would not be very proud of their doctrine if they passed through Lawrence or Thompson streets and beheld their practical disciples, and the degraded haunts to which they resort. The results of intercommunication and marriage been the negroes and whites are there freely illustrated and the little nondescripts of all colors, with facial characteristics, denoting how much nature was puzzled, if not disgusted, with the union, speak more eloquently against miscegenation than Tilton ever did in its favor.

Jefferson Market Police Court, which embraces in its jurisdiction the Eighth Ward, takes cognizance of all such cases as may be presented for adjudication. Scarcely a month elapses but some complaint, involving miscegenation is decided. On last Saturday, for instance, a well dressed man of about thirty-five years, came before Judge Ledwith to prefer a charge against a woman for having stolen his watch. The Judge inquired how he lost it, and he replied that he could not tell; as he was in the house of the lady and had no recollection of her movements. All he could remember was that the officer found his watch at the foot of the stairs. "Call the prisoner, Elizabeth Johnson," said Judge Ledwith, and forthwith there appeared at the bar a stout-built African lady as black as midnight, to whom the miscegen had made love on the previous evening. But the complainant's heart relented when he saw her, and he pleaded for her discharge. There being no evidence against her, his request was complied with.

Another miscegenetic case was tried by Judge Ledwith yesterday, in the same Court. At three o'clock an officer brought two elderly Celtic ladies to the temporary prison, which is located in a room adjoining Court. Each of the prisoners carried in her arms a negro child, one being about a year and the other six months old. A moment's glance at them would convince an observer that they were deadly enemies. Near them sat a genuine negro of pure African order, who displayed his ivories with occasional laughter. He had captured by the exercise of the gallantry and love of which his race is so capable the hearts of the Hibernian damsels near him, and was the self-confessed father of the two little miscegens which they hoisted before him in true nursery style. One of the ladies however, seemed determined that her rival should not enjoy the charms of her black lord.

In order to ascertain the facts in the case our reporter visited the prison where the colored bigamist was confined, and ascertained from one of the women that she had been married to the negro some two years since in New Haven. "But," she said, "a little trouble happened me, and while I was away he took up with his concubine over there, and she decoyed him to leave me, and he's living with her ever since at No. 75 Laurens street. But he's my lawful husband, and by —— I must have him. This is his child, and he must support me and it, and he must live with me."

She had scarcely ceased speaking when wife No. 2 approached the darkey and exhibited the other child before him, remarking that he must support her and it and that she would live with him in spite of the other claimant for him. The two rivals then fought till they were separated, the negro who witnessed the contest, maintaining his composure till they were separated.

When they were brought before Judge Ledwith wife No. 1 was identified as a woman who had served six months on Blackwell's Island for disorderly conduct and this circumstance and the explanation to which she alluded when speaking to our reporter. After hearing the evidence in the case Judge Ledwith sent the two women to the penitentiary for six months for disorderly conduct. The negro was discharged.—N. Y. Herald.

WILL BE ELECTED.—Major Harry White of Pennsylvania, who it will be recollected was long a prisoner in the hands of the rebels and resigned his seat in the State Senate in a letter from Libby Prison in order that his place might be filled by a true Union man and thereby break the dead lock which his involuntary absence had occasioned in that body, has been nominated to the same position by the [illegible] of the new Senatorial district of Indiana, Cambria and Jefferson. After four hundred ballots Major Andrews of Jefferson withdrew his name when [illegible] cast their votes for Major White. He will be elected of course.

[illegible] thirty years ago as the late venerable Parson [illegible] sometimes called [illegible] ing from church [illegible] with the [illegible] Parson Bradley [illegible] whose guest he was and whose pulpit he had just been supplying, the former took occasion to remark that it always made him hungry to preach. Whereupon the latter immediately exclaimed, "It makes you hungry to preach, what [illegible] think of the people?"

The Rockland Gazette tells the story of a person who asked a neighbor if he knew what would kill the Canada thistle. The reply was "Nothing will kill it but the unmitigated wrath of God."

PHILADELPHIA PAPERS.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial makes the following statements in regard to the newspapers of Philadelphia:

The newspaper press of Philadelphia is in a flourishing condition. Seven dailies are issued, of which five are morning, and two evening journals. The Ledger, a two cent paper, takes the lead in circulation and under its new proprietor George Childs, whose name has long been a synonym for enterprise, it is about erecting a magnificent new publication and printing office on the corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets. The Press, Col. Forney's paper, is distinguished by its local enterprise and the thorough and exhaustive manner in which its reporters do up the news and business interests of the city. Col. Forney, in the recess of Congress, is doing double editorial duty, writing most of the leading articles for both the Press and the Washington Chronicle. Report says that his income from both papers is over $30,000 a year. The Inquirer is active and sensational, the North American heavy and readable, the Bulletin dull editorially with gossipy selections, the Telegraph empty of interest and the Age the sole and seely representative of Philadelphia Copperheadism.

I WON'T.—"No I won't." So, now, there's the end of it! "You won't!" Whether you are right or wrong depends on what it is you are asked to do. If a base or unworthy thing, the sooner "I won't" is said, the better. But if it is a good thing, be careful how you commit yourself by saying "I won't." "I won't" is an ugly expression. It savors of doggedness, determination to take one's own course whether right or wrong. If not uttered in anger, it is apt to excite anger and resistance. "Happy is the woman whose habits are her friends," says the maxim. A woman can cultivate her habits as she does her friends. She can choose for herself. She can govern her thoughts, control her temper, elevate her aspirations, if she will. On every side there are helps to happiness, which any woman may make use of to promote her personal well being, and to improve her inner life. If she determines to employ them. If such a temper and disposition be sedulously cultivated the irritable irritation producing exclamation of "I won't" would be much more rarely heard in social and domestic life than now.

Spurgeon in one of his sermons in his attempt to illustrate "personal effort," one day told a story of a "Yankee" who boasted that he could whip the entire English nation. "And how would you do it?" said a bystander. "Why," said the Yankee, "I would take one Englishman at a time, then another, and so on, until all were whipped." At the close of the sermon there came a tall, solemn-looking man, who hailed from the State of Maine, and presented to Mr. Spurgeon a letter of introduction. Soon Mr. Spurgeon addressed the new comer by saying: "Well, my American friend, how did you like my illustration of individual power drawn from your country men?" "Oh, I was quite well pleased with it because it was so true." "So true, so true," said Mr. Spurgeon. "What do you mean, Sir?" "I know a Yankee that did that once," was the reply. "And what was his name?" Mr. Spurgeon asked. "The name, sir, was George Washington, perhaps you have heard of him?" Mr. Spurgeon joined in the hearty laugh, and allowed the Yankee was too much for him.

A TEMPLE DISCOVERED AT POMPEII.—Letters from Naples describe a temple of Juno, just discovered among the recent excavations of Pompeii. Three hundred skeletons were found crowded within the sanctuary, a propitiatory service having evidently been held in the hour they were overwhelmed. The statue of the goddess, with its attendant peacock, the tripod in front of the altar, the golden censer, the jewels of the person of the priestess, the rich vessel holding the deposit of animal blood are the main particulars dwelt on. The eyes of Juno were of the most vivid enamel, her arms and her whole person richly decorated with gold trinkets, her gaudy bird resplendent with a cluster of glittering gems. Aromatic ingredients lay calcined within the censer, while gorgeous lamps and bronze ornaments strewed the tesselated pavement.

QUARTZ.—A number of gentlemen, having abundant means to test the quality of the ledges hereabouts, have been engaged for some weeks past in prospecting for quartz. Major Glen informs us that one ledge on Jackson Creek and a number of others in other parts of the county have been found which will justify the employment of the improved machinery in working them. Companies for working these ledges will be incorporated and machinery erected for extracting the gold at an early day. We wish them abundant success.—Oregon Sentinel.

KENTUCKY.—The Kentucky Senate will stand twenty one Conservatives and seventeen Union. The gains in the eastern part of the State far as [illegible] will secure a Union majority if the southern part of the State has not done worse than supposed. The Democratic candidate for State Treasurer is elected, and the Union candidate in danger only [illegible]. The Union candidates for Congress in the Second and Third Districts were defeated by 1,000 each.

The effects of the raids upon the whaling fleet was at the latest dates very serious upon New Bedford. The total value of vessels belonging to that port was about $800,000, a [illegible] which is covered by insurance. [illegible] more [illegible] taken for Pacific vessels.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
